Rasmussen tabbed as next WRPS superintendent

FOR CITY TIMES

WISCONSIN RAPIDS
-- After conducting finalist interviews, the Wisconsin Rapids Public Schools (WRPS) Board of Education has selected Ronald Rasmussen to serve as the next WRPS Superintendent.

Rasmussen holds a Master of Arts degree in Educational Leadership from Marian University, a Bachelor of Arts in History,

Rasmussen

Political Science, and Secondary Education from the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay, and is currently working on his Education Specialist in Educational Administration - Superintendent degree from the University of Wisconsin-Superior. Rasmussen currently serves as Principal of Lincoln High School in Wisconsin Rapids, a role he has been in since 2012. He has also held the positions of Principal at Mauston High School, Associate Principal at Reedsburg Area High School, and Social Studies Instructor at Reedsburg Area High School.

"I am humbled and honored to serve as the next leader of WRPS," Rasmussen said via a press release from the district. "As a long-time member of the Wisconsin Rapids community and a proud parent of a son and daughter who have received exceptional educational experiences here, I have seen firsthand how fortunate we are to have such amazing schools in our community. I am committed to continuously developing our great schools through strong relationships with, and among, our School Board, staff members, parents, and students. Additionally, I am excited to engage community members, local businesses and non-profit organizations, and higher educational partners in developing and maintaining a top notch school system. I look forward to working collaboratively with all of our stakeholders to create a long-term vision for our
